Return To Sender Casket and Urn

These award winning New Zealand designed caskets have low sides for a more natural viewing and a restrained material use minimises the environmental impact.

The casket mattresses are crafted from the wool of New Zealand sheep, with an eco-friendly cornstarch lining.

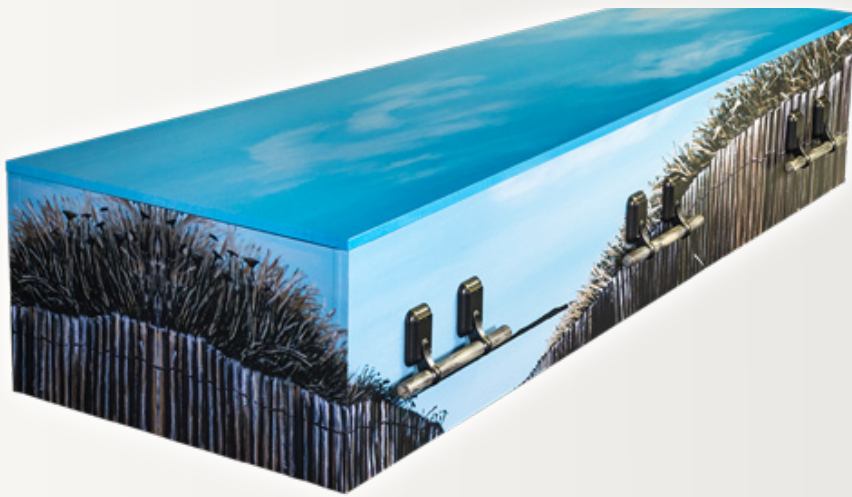

Printed with natural ink directly onto the Artisan lid, these designs reflect the striking essence of NZ including our Kereru, Nikau, Silver Fern or a garden full of roses.

They can also be printed with your own photo to personalise or can be left unprinted for a simple, natural look.

Matching cremation Urns are available in all of these styles.

Pukehina Chaise Casket

Handcrafted in New Zealand the Pukehina is made from sustainably grown New Zealand pine and finished with an artistic beach scene vinyl exterior. With a natural fibre padded interior, a linen mattress, pillow and duvet.

$2,705

Wanaka Casket

The Wanaka is handcrafted in New Zealand using sustainably grown pine then stained in a modern stonewash and has a soft satin finish. It is then fitted with matching hand-painted dropbar handles with a graphite finish and solid pine inserts. A traditional shape, it is lined in natural linen fabric and includes a compressed wool mattress and a pillow and throw made in linen with a simple, modern print.

$2,440

Willow Casket

Our willow coffins are constructed from natural stripped plantation willow saplings, woven into the typical coffin form and finished with an attractive woven hem. A plywood base is fixed to the underside which helps maintain its rigidity.

The interior of the coffin, including the lid is fully lined in an unbleached calico. Calico headrests and veils are included. There are three strong sea grass handles on either side. All coffins are suitable for both cremation and burial, and since there are no toxic chemicals used during manufacturing they are an environmentally friendly option.
